

JANUARY TO SEPTEMBER 2026

Supporters of Children (SofC) Impact Report

Donor support helps provide essential assistance for Colorado children and youth. Through the efforts of community partners who identify individuals with specific needs, we fund practical assistance including food & clothing, transportation, camp fees, essential repairs, and immigration-related expenses.

$9,792

Funds spent on direct assistance

$5,640

Donated labor recorded as in-kind support in 2026¹

30

Children and young people assisted by SofC in 2026

What each partnership makes possible

RMIAN Rocky Mountain Immigrant Advocacy Network connects requests for immigration filing fees, required medical exams, transportation, and other essential support.

YEA Youth Employment Academy connects us with young people who need urgent assistance with their daily needs

PorchLight Our partnership enables us to assist kids from families affected by domestic violence with help for rent, food, clothing, school supplies, and utility bills.

Where assistance funding went

2026 year-to-date grants and gifts by request category¹

YEA		$3,430
RMIAN		$3,334
PorchLight		$963
Additional requests		$2,065

Together, these five categories total $9,792. In-kind labor is reported separately. Financial values come from the accrual profit-and-loss statement.

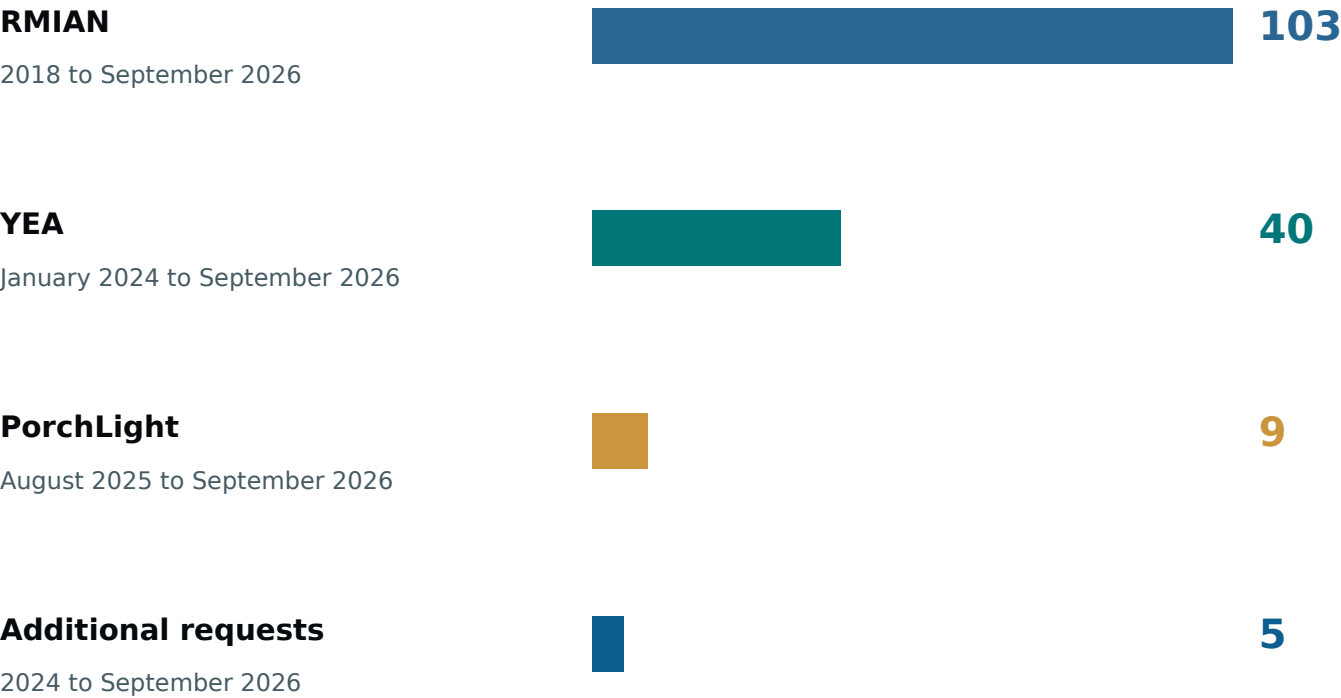

OUR PARTNERSHIPS

Reach through trusted partners

Partner organizations make requests based on children's needs. SofC provides targeted financial support to help address needs that, if unmet, can interrupt a young person's daily life.

Children and young people assisted

Cumulative figures from each partner report^{2 3 4}

These figures cover different periods and are not comparable annual performance measures. They are source-reported counts, not a verified total of unique people across partners.

WHAT SUPPORT MEANS

Relief for everyday essentials

A PorchLight mom’s experience shows how targeted assistance can ease immediate financial pressure.⁴

Working full time and still falling behind

Following domestic violence, a mother raising her two young children was unable to pay for rent, childcare, transportation, and utilities. Even while working full time, she relied on a food bank and had little left for the children’s clothing or other needs.

SofC paid an overdue utility balance and provided gift cards for food, clothing, and a few holiday gifts. The assistance addressed immediate bills and gave the mother room to plan for the children.

$963

Total assistance for this family⁴

$750 in gift cards for essentials

$213 for an overdue utility bill

"I really appreciate it! The gift cards for Walmart will be great! I am behind on the (energy) bill. Thank you all soooo much! I am crying! THANK YOU!!!"

- Children assisted through PorchLight

Shared with permission. Identifying details removed.

STEWARDSHIP AND NEXT STEPS

Sustaining practical support

January 1 to September 30, 2026 | Accrual accounting includes paid and unpaid items.¹

Income and Funds Distributed

Income $12,199

Funds Distributed (in kind donations included) $15,432

■ Non-in-kind income / requests ■ In-kind ■ Remaining expenses

Income includes $6,558.65 in donations and Kroger Community Rewards Program plus $5,640.00 in in-kind donations. Funds distributed include $9,791.76 in assistance request categories, $5,640.00 in in-kind expenses, and $1,625.66 in remaining operating expenses that were paid by SofC's working board. 100% of donations went to support children.

Funds Distributed exceeded annual donations by $5,869.52. Continued contributions can help sustain assistance for children and young people. Cash reserves are not shown in this profit-and-loss statement.

Help meet the next request

For donors Give to support urgent needs or explore contributing skilled services. In 2026, donated repair labor added $5,640 in value to the work.^{1 2}

For potential partners Start a conversation with SofC about the children and young people you serve, unmet needs, and opportunities for coordinated assistance.

Sources and reporting notes

¹ SofC Profit and Loss, January 1 to September 30, 2026. ² YEA comprehensive report, January 2024 to September 2026. ³ RMIAN comprehensive report, 2018 to September 2026. ⁴ PorchLight comprehensive report, August 2025 to September 2026. All supplied reports dated October 3, 2026.
Financial charts use the accrual statement; case-report amounts differ in timing and scope. Reach counts are reported as supplied and may include repeat recipients. Figures document assistance, not independently evaluated outcomes.